MAGIC: Children in the Faery Den at Leyton Midsummer Festival

Leyton's touched by faery dust

MORE than 3,000 residents attended the Leyton Midsummer Festival.

The event is one of six free community celebrations organised by Waltham Forest Council over the summer.

It took place in Leyton Jubilee Park, with musical performances, as well as family-friendly activities, arts and entertainment.

Children enjoyed a magical Faery Den where they made head-dresses, lanterns and puppets while hearing stories from Craig Jenkins and Bryan Woltjen.

The day also saw the annual Le Tour de Waltham Forest cycling race and a "geocaching" walking tour.

The next event is the Leyton Get Together, at Leyton Sports Ground, Crawley Road, from 1pm to 7pm on Sunday, July 3.

Police officers hurt after being pelted with missiles at unlicensed event

NINE HELD AT ILLEGAL RAVE

By Michael Cox

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

NINE police officers were injured and nine people arrested following an unlicensed music event in Barking.

At around 9.45pm on Saturday, June 18, police were informed of a large number of people gathering for an unlicensed event at a building in Thames Road.

Officers from a number of surrounding boroughs and the Pan-London Taskforce (Territorial Support Group and Dog Support Unit) attended and found 1,000 people inside the venue and around the same number outside.

Missiles were thrown at officers but most of those in attendance dispersed and the building was emptied by 2am on Sunday, June 19.

Eight male officers and one female officer – two sergeants, two dog handlers and five police constables – received injuries.

Four of the male officers were treated in hospital and later released.

Nine men were arrested on suspicion of a variety of offences including organising an illegal rave, burglary and violent disorder.

They have all been bailed to dates in mid and late August pending further enquiries.

Temporary Chief Superintendent Sean Wilson, borough commander for Barking and Dagenham, said: "A number of officers were injured while going about their duties and this will not be tolerated.

"A full investigation has been launched and we will endeavour to bring those responsible to justice.

"We are working very closely with the community who are shocked by these events."

MUSCLE CARS: The SS and SLP ZL 575

TRANSFORMERS: The Camaro Bumblebee

Get to drive a Camaro

HIRE A CAMARO – the only self-drive hire of its kind in the UK – is giving away two fantastic prizes to Yellow Advertiser readers.

The company in Rayleigh, which has a growing collection of Camaros including the yellow Bumblebee made famous by the Transformers films, hires out the cars for a day, the weekend or a week.

Whatever the occasion, a wedding, prom, an event launch, or just the opportunity to treat yourself or a loved one, there is a range of Camaros to choose from.

Alongside the Bumblebee with its scissor doors you can drive a classic Camaro LS, the Camaro SS or the supercharged SLP ZL 575 Camaro, from £160 a day.

To give you the chance to experience the enjoyment of one of its Camaros the company is giving you the chance to drive any one of your choice for a day.

If you are not lucky enough to win, then there is a fantastic runner-up prize of four VIP tickets to The Buster Lang Classic Car Show, which will be held at Sandown Park Racecourse, in Esher, on August 13 and 14.

As Hire A Camaro, part of American Car Hire Limited, is supporting the all-American, classic, custom, hot rod and bike show, you and your family or friends can enjoy weekend tickets to the show, backstage access, camping passes and goody bags.

To find out more about the Camaros you can hire visit hireacamaro.co.uk and for details about The Buster Lang Car Show visit busterlang.co.uk.

For your chance to win answer the following question.

Q: In which county can you find Sandown Park Racecourse, which will be hosting The Buster Lang Classic Car Show on August 13 and 14?

A: Essex
B: Surrey
C: Sussex

To enter the competition telephone your answer – A, B or C – to 0901 307 1671 with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YACAR (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge. Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more.

Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates. If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Lines close on Thursday, June 30.

Entries received after the closing date will not be counted but may still be charged.

Service Provider: JMedia UK Limited, RH16 3EG. Tel: 020 7720 7130.

T&Cs: Anyone can enter the competition but to be able to drive the vehicle for a day they must adhere to American Car Hire Limited's terms and conditions. See hireacamaro.co.uk for full details. VIP tickets are valid for the weekend of August 13 and 14, 2016. Travel to and from the event, as well as food and refreshments, are not included.

APPEAL: Paul Hoque

Fugitive fails to appear in court

POLICE are appealing for the public's help in tracing a man who has failed to appear at court and is wanted on recall to prison for knife and drugs offences.

Paul Hoque, 22, of no fixed address, failed to appear at Barking and Dagenham Magistrates' Court on Wednesday, June 8.

He was due to face charges of possessing a knife and possession with intent to supply Class A drugs.

He is from the Dagenham area and is also known to spend time in the Barking and Romford areas.

Hoque is 5ft 9in and chubby with short black hair.

PC Ben Forbes, from Barking and Dagenham's gang unit, said: "Paul Hoque is seeking to evade police and the criminal justice system.

"Police will do everything in their power to bring offenders to justice and I would ask for the public's help in locating and apprehending Hoque."

If anyone has seen Hoque, they should call police in Barking and Dagenham on 101. To remain anonymous, they can call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

'Hitman' jailed for attempted murder

A MAN has been jailed for 20 years for attempted murder.

Stanislavs Leonovs, 27, was found guilty at the Old Bailey on Friday, June 17 of trying to kill a 57-year-old man in Green Lane, Goodmayes, and possessing a firearm.

At the same court on Monday, June 20, Leonovs, of Luton Road, Chatham, Kent, was sentenced to 20 years for the attempted murder and seven years' jail for the firearm charge to run concurrently.

The court heard on July 1, 2015, shortly before 5.50am, Leonovs discharged seven shots from the boot of a Volkswagen Passat at his victim and left him critically injured.

The victim recovered and was eventually released from hospital.

Detectives failed to discover a motive but £5,000 was transferred to Leonovs shortly after the shooting. They linked Leonovs to the purchase of the Passat and showed that he made early morning trips in it to the victim's address. A Winchester rifle was recovered from a garden close to the scene and CCTV showed a man matching Leonovs' description discarding the weapon.

Leonovs was traced to a car park in Chatham, Kent, on July 16, 2015.

He fled but the Passat was found with Leonovs' DNA inside.

He was arrested in Gillingham, Kent, on December 10.

At his address documents showed he had fled to France before returning to the country.

Detective Constable Peter Harvey said: "The investigation has shown that he [Leonovs] was willing to take money and attempt to kill someone, the sentence reflects just how serious a crime this was.

"Our investigation remains ongoing to find out who conspired with Leonovs and who paid him to carry out this shooting."

Man faces manslaughter charge

A MAN has appeared in court charged with manslaughter following the death of a man found collapsed in Barking.

Lee Baker, 40, of Crispe House, Dovehouse Mead, Barking, was charged on Sunday, June 19 with the manslaughter of 48-year-old Alan Dutton who died in hospital on Thursday, June 16.

Baker appeared at Barking and Dagenham Magistrates' Court on Monday, June 20 and was remanded into custody to appear on a date to be arranged.

Investigation at Meadow Road estate kick-starts 'proactive' hunt

Trident search unearths weapons stockpile

POLICE discovered a disturbing collection of screwdrivers and other tools hidden on a Barking housing estate, as part of a their weapons sweep carried out in order to tackle knife crime.

The weapons were hidden in bushes at Sebastian Court, Meadow Road.

Sophie Linden, deputy mayor of London for policing and crime, joined officers from Trident as they searched the area as part of Operation Sceptre.

The project was one of several scheduled this week to crack down on knife offences.

Officers were also set to carry out intelligence-led stop-and-searches, as well as 'proactive' operations to hunt down suspects wanted for knife-related offences and other violent crimes.

VIGILANT Officers attempt to leave no stone unturned as the search for weapons across the borough begins at sebastian Court

John makes a healthy choice

A DAGENHAM man has retired after 44 years of working for a hospital trust.

John Owen, 65, retired on June 17 after an remarkably long spell of work at five sites and in at least four different roles at Barking, Havering and Redbridge University Hospitals NHS Trust.

Most recently John has worked as a therapy technician, where his team at Integrated Therapies arranged a special send-off for him. Colleagues past and present were in attendance, as were family members, including his wife Antoinette who also works at the trust as a sonographer.

John said: "I love this job. I've always met different people and they're like a family to me. It's gone so quickly and I've had fantastic times."

"A lot has changed. When I started there was no machinery – it was all done by hand."

John was 18 when he joined the trust as a post messenger in 1969 at the now closed Rush

"When I started, everything was done by hand."

DEDICATED John Owen with the trust's chief executive Matthew Hopkins

Green Hospital.

He then became a porter, and was head porter at the former Harold Wood Hospital for 11 years. After this, he spent two years in the medical store centre at St George Hospital in Hornchurch.

The father of five made his final career change when he became a therapy technician and moved to Oldchurch Hospital in 2000. He then moved to Queen's Hospital when it opened in 2006.

The trust's chief executive Matthew Hopkins presented John with a long-service award plus gifts at his leaving event.

As for keeping occupied in retirement, Dagenham-based John said: "I'll be decorating and dog-walking. And continuing as family cabbie, of course."

A Dey to remember

AN UPMINSTER entrepreneur has described being made an MBE as a "truly humbling experience".
Rajeeb Dey, 30, founder and CEO of Enternships and co-founder of StartUp Britain, was honoured in recognition for his services to business in the Queen's 90th Birthday Honours List.

Enternships has provided internships and graduate jobs within more than 6,500 start-ups or new businesses. He was already the proud owner of a

AWARD: Dey, MBE

Queen's Award for Enterprise Promotion in 2013 and was named the youngest Young Global Leader in 2012 by the World Economic Forum.

Mr Dey said: "My business journey started aged 17 and ever since I have been passionate about encouraging other young people to pursue more entrepreneurial careers. "Hearing the stories of young people being inspired by us to launch their own ventures is a reward in itself."

"To now get an MBE from the Queen is truly humbling."

Dey also co-founded StartUp Britain, a national campaign to encourage entrepreneurship and launched by Prime Minister David Cameron in March 2011.

Boy eyes Dahl prize for his specs design

WINNER: Naveed Ehsan receives his prize from Doulat Richards

A SCHOOLBOY from Walthamstow has won a charity competition to design a pair of glasses.

Naveed Ehsan, 11, from Hillyfield Primary Academy, was presented with a collection of Roald Dahl books and a fun model of his design at Scrivens Opticians & Hearing Care, Hoe Street, Walthamstow, as regional winner of the national competition.

Youngsters submitted designs with all proceeds from the £1 entry fee going to Alzheimer's Society.

Naveed's mum Fahima Mahmood said: "Naveed saw the competition when he went to the branch for an eye test. He likes Roald Dahl so he was happy to win."

Branch manager Doulat Richards said: "Alzheimer's Society is our chosen charity of the year for a second successive year. This was a fun way to engage children and raise awareness of the charity and its work."

"Naveed did a great job with his design and is a worthy winner."

Students wow talent agency scouts

THREE performing arts students at Redbridge College have been signed to a London talent agency.

Josh Redman, Rafel Rozmus and Rita Biddel impressed scouts from London agency Roar Global.

Roar's scouts attended the performance arts, media and music students' end-of-year show at Box Theatre at the college, where the students are taught.

The show Cabaret Cabaret was loosely based on the West End musical of a similar name and involved a number of different acts including monologues, dancing and singing, styled as an end-of-year review.

Gerry McDonald, the college's interim principal and CEO, said: "I am really pleased that three of the students have been signed up by an agency and I wish them every success with their careers."

Race-bred Mini up for the challenge

By Mike Torpey

A NEW race-bred Mini is about to hit UK streets as a strictly limited edition model.

Called the Mini John Cooper Works Challenge, it is based on the fiery Mini JCW Hatch variant but adds some upgrades to make it more track focused.

The Challenge bit refers to the racing series that has been running since 2002.

And with that in mind the Mini development team in Oxford has worked with the racing car's key suppliers to ensure the new comer "delivers bespoke track performance to levels never before seen in the small hot hatch class".

Limited to a maximum of 100 cars, the model features a unique colour combination and graphics, genuine Mini JCW Pro Accessories, and is available in one fixed specification only with a tab of £32,000.

The new special edition uses the latest Mini John Cooper Works Hatch as its basis – itself the most potent Mini ever produced – and is powered by a 2.0-litre twin turbo engine developing 231bhp.

It uses a six-speed manual transmission, can scorch from 0-62mph in 6.3 seconds, has a top speed of 153mph, yet can return 42.2mpg with CO2 emissions of 155g/km.

Bespoke styling includes enlarged air intakes at the front for increased cooling, contoured wheel arch extensions and a rear spoiler, while the cabin features John Cooper Works sports seats and sports steering wheel.

Satisfied with the car's degree of power, the engineering team concentrated more on the Challenge model's chassis, tyres and braking.

So the car is supplied with recommended settings for both road and track driving, the damper units offering adjustment through numerous "clicks", though owners can choose to experiment with their own settings to tune the car to their own tastes.

And it comes shod with 17-inch Michelin Pilot Sport Cup 2 tyres, original equipment for a host of high-performance cars, plus grooved and part-drilled 330mm front disc brakes with four-pot Brembo-developed calipers.

The new John Cooper Works Challenge also uses the Mini JCW Pro Accessories like splitters and spoiler add-ons already available for John Cooper Works Hatch.

Every Challenge model is painted in White Silver, can be readily identifiable by a bespoke graphics package, black roof and mirror caps and also has the alloy wheels finished in black.

2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature, at the discretion of the Publishers, are deemed "Trade Advertisers" and as such, must include their address in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to their requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisements must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "dealer", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "VT" etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
- (a) Day error, inaccuracies or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward notices to box readers in the Advertiser.
5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where advantage of advertisement accrues for whatever reason the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centenary. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
8. All gross advertising rates (except classified fringe and semi-regular) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement is accepted.
10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for resending insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publisher shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
- (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or concessions that had been allowed will be withdrawn.
- (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 8% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or concessions that had been allowed will be withdrawn. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1983.
14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement should the appointed agent fail to pay for the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are provided in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publisher's control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability of the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide visitor copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Free Numbers

Numbers are given for the receipt of back side answers and are not available for distribution of trade advertising material. Original backnumbers, goods, cash, cash charges or payments of any kind must not be included. A bar number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. box fee, centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Free numbers are not available for use in "trade" advertisements, other than employment and business opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number above and not provided.

Credit Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search of a credit-referencing agency which will ensure that that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing orders.

Our controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Capital Media Newspapers Ltd or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. TEENS STILL IN FIGHT FOR PROMOTION

Athletics

A HOME victory keeps the Havering AC Under 13 and Under 15 squad in a three-way fight for the two promotion slots to reach the highest division of the Youth Development League.

Havering came out on top in a high quality meeting which produced three league records, including one in the Under 15 boys' javelin for Max Law.

Law's 61.40m winning throw was his second longest and improved his own league record set in the first fixture, and he also added victory in the discus.

Robert Moore and Joe Hogan-O'Neill added full points with hammer A and B wins and Moore was runner-up in B shot and discus.

Euan McDonnell was second in the high jump with a PB on his debut and Ben Hamberger's PB won the B. Alex Friend smashed his 800m PB in second and Kimathi Christie easily won the B string for the only U15 boys' track win.

After missing out on a club record last time out due to a judging error, the Under 15 girls made no mistake this time as Caitlin Sagers, Freya Duffy, Rosie Brown and Jade Kavanagh won in a time which took over four seconds off the previous club mark.

Brown also starred with a winning double in the discus and the 300m in a new PB.

Her partners Robyn Moody (discus) and Hannah Panchal (300m) did well with respective first and second places.

The hurdles pairing of Millie Hodges and Elize Bonning were both second and Molly Sweetman took chunks off her 150m best for second. Paris Avers was second in the B hammer and second in the shot, and the javelin pairing of Adelaide Thatcher-Gray and Amy Nash also both placed second.

Ashton Thatcher-Gray's long jump win was the sole Under 13 boys' win but there was much to cheer in a good all-round display from a squad full of athletes competing at this level for the first time. Ashton was also runner-up in the B 200m, as was Alex Ford in the 1500m, while Daragh Thomas added second place points in both B long and high jump events. The strength of the opposition was such that newcomer Oscar Osuala's 100m clocking of 12.8s was good enough to rank in the club all-time top 10 but only placed him third on the day.

Nike Esho's winning high jump clearance of 1.40m took her to fifth on the all-time club list for the Under 13 girls with Lola Kuponiyi taking in the B string also, as well as winning the A shot. Alice Atkins won the B hurdles with Ruby Mace second in the A and the 1200m duo of Sydney Foley and Alice Brown both set PBs in placing second, with Brown also second in the javelin B.

Havering need to finish ahead of either Portsmouth or Herne Hill in the final match at Croydon on July 16 to win promotion to the Southern Premier 1 Division.

■ The Southern League squad came back to earth after winning their recent home fixture, with the short-handed squad bringing up the rear in a top half of the table clash at Welwyn on Saturday.

The ladies had 10 individual wins. Fifteen-year-old Mayi Hughes shone against senior competition with three victories, winning the triple jump and coming close to her recent club U17 record and winning the B strings on the shot and javelin in style in her first attempt at the senior weights.

Bethan Siddons won her high jump speciality and added a B triple jump win while Chloe van Wulven won the A string sprint hurdles and B string 400m hurdles. Rachel Evans won both discus and shot, and was second in the B hammer, while Nina Brennan took B discus honours.

Claire Brennan was runner-up in the sprint hurdles and third in the 400m hurdles and vault, and Emma Christmas was second in the javelin.

Zoe Young, Rachel Kerr and Clare Davies all added points for the team's cause.

For the men Alex Law provided the only men's A string win taking the long jump as Richard Holland made it a double with B string victory.

Law was also javelin runner-up and third in the shot. On the track there were three B string wins as Nathan Steele won the 100m, Fraser Boston the 200m and Sydney Conteh 400m.

Nathan also won the B triple jump. Lewis Bailey was second in both sprints and John Adekoya added another second in the high jump, with Shandell Taylor second in the B. Ian Anthony B 5000m and Michael Duncan (B chase) added more second places and second in the B shop was the highest placing for the ever-busy Arron Bonning. James Stewart (800m and 1500m), Matt Bland (5000m), Martin Chester (chase) and Ed Brinton-Quinn (hammer) added points to the roster.

Wins for both relay teams ensured the day ended on a high, as John, Nathan, Richard and Lewis took the sprint relay, before Sydney, Matt Owers, Fraser and Lewis came home in front in the 4x400m event.

■ Rachel Forder won Under 23 discus bronze at the weekend's national championships at Bedford. It was the 19-year-old's longest throw since returning from her first year at George Mason University, Virginia, where she improved her best to 46.22m. Georgie Taylor was eighth in 41.97m.

Josh Olawore had a tough day in the 200m, with three races to contest. He ran 21.94s in his U23 heat, a swift 21.53s in his semi-final to qualify for the final where his 21.74s clocking earned seventh place.

Also in action was George Hadler who ran 15.90s in the 110m hurdles heat and 15.96s for eighth place in the final.

Non-league round-up

Blues and O's veteran signs for Braintree

By Brian Jeeves

BRAINTREE Town manager Jamie Day has continued to shape his squad ahead of the new National League campaign with the signings of Lee Barnard and midfielder Craig Branham-Barrett.

Striker Barnard brings a wealth of experience to Crossing Road. After starting his career with Tottenham Hotspur, the 31-year-old has represented a number of Football League clubs, including Southend United and Leyton Orient.

Speaking to the Iron's official website about his capture, boss Day said: "Lee's got bags of experience, played plenty of League football and scored nearly 80 goals at that level. He'll be a great addition to the squad."

Midfielder Branham-Barrett arrives from Dover Athletic, having enjoyed spells at Peterborough United, Macclesfield Town and Ebbsfleet United after starting out at Charlton Athletic.

Day said: "Craig's played a lot of his football on the left in defensive roles, but I do see him pushing further forward for us. He has great pace and is a very direct player. He has a bit of a point to prove. He certainly has the hunger I'm looking for."

Ryman League Division One North new boys Bowers & Pitsea have been honoured with the Essex Senior League Achievement Award marking the club's run of success during the last campaign.

Bowers were promoted for the first time in 42 years after lifting the ESL title, but this particular accolade marks their incredible run to the semi-final of the FA Vase and reaching the quarter-final of the Essex Senior Cup.

Other news from the Len Salmon Stadium club saw the addition of winger James Thomas ahead of the new campaign.

Thomas, who joined Bowers from Saffron Walden Town, enjoyed spells with Takeley and Bishop's Stortford Swifts. He first came to manager Rob Small's attention when he was at Southminster St Leonards.

Meanwhile, Bowers have announced an increase in admission for fans next season, bringing them in line with the additional cost of promotion to the Ryman League. The new prices are adults £9, and OAPs and under-16s £4.

Ryman League Division One North outfit Maldon & Tiptree have announced their list of retained players ahead of the new season. Matthew Lock, Billy Roast, Darren McQueen, Kieran Monlouis, Kyle Hammond, Adam Mills, Sam Newson, Shaun Phillips, Gavin Greenfield, Rhys Henry, Curtis Haynes-Brown, Darren Mills, David Levey and Tarryn Allarakha will all be remaining with the Jammers, while MJ Kedman links up with the club from Sky Bet League One club Sheffield United.

The Park Drive club have added two more warm-up fixtures, taking on Stanway Rovers at Colchester United's Florence Park Training Ground on Saturday, July 16 (3pm), then travelling to Needham Market, Suffolk, on Saturday, August 6 (3pm).

Ambitious Essex Senior League outfit Ilford have updated their pre-season programme. The full list of fixtures are as follows: Debden Sports (away) Tuesday, June 28 (7pm); Aveley (at the Robert Clack School) Saturday, July 9 (2.45pm); Tilbury (Robert Clack School) Tuesday, July 12 (7.45pm); Enfield Town (Robert Clack School) Tuesday, July 19 (7.45pm); Harold Hill (away) Saturday, July 23 (3pm); Kelvedon Hatch (Robert Clack School) Thursday, July 28 (7.45pm); Great Wakering Rovers (Robert Clack School) Saturday, July 30 (2.45pm) and Romford (Cricklefield Stadium) Wednesday, August 3 (7.45pm).

Ryman League Division One North club, Heybridge Swifts have announced their pre-season programme: Brantham Athletic (away) Tuesday, July 5 (7.45pm); Chelmsford City (home) Thursday, July 7 (7.45pm); Braintree Town (home) Saturday, July 9 (3pm); Colchester United XI (home) Thursday, July 14 (7.45pm); Cornard United (away) Tuesday, July 19 (7.45pm); Burnham Ramblers (away) Saturday, July 23 (3pm); Barking (away) Saturday, July 30 (3pm); Wivenhoe Town (away) Tuesday, August 2 (7.45pm) and AFC Sudbury (home) Saturday, August 6 (3pm).

Swifts manager Jody Brown has added new signings Joss Neale, from Stanway Rovers, and Callum Leahy, from Basildon United, to his squad.

Essex Senior League Redbridge have issued their pre-season fixtures: The Motormen will face Harold Wood Athletic (away) on Saturday, July 16 (3pm); AFC Hornchurch (home) Wednesday, July 20 (7.30pm); Tilbury (home) Tuesday, July 26 (7.30pm) and Colney Heath (away) Saturday, July 30 (3pm).

Great Wakering Colts are looking to progress with a new girls team for the forthcoming campaign.

Club chairman John Galley is looking for a manager/coach, as well as enthusiastic year-eight girls from September, who are interested in playing regular competitive football.

Interested players and those who wish to volunteer for the post of manager/coach should contact Mr Galley at chairman@gwcolts.co.uk.

Milne move ruled out after elbow injury requires surgery

Cricket

ADAM Milne has suffered an injury setback and has been ruled out of his upcoming NatWest T20 Blast spell with Essex Eagles.

Milne was due to replace Wahab Riaz, who joins up with Pakistan for the upcoming Test series, but now requires surgery on an elbow injury he sustained recently.

The New Zealand international had been signed for the final seven matches of the campaign but faces an extensive period on the sidelines and will no longer be able to appear at the ECG.
